"God is blessing our ministry in so many ways. We recently added another volunteer chaplain to our team and we have been blessed with many new visitors who come in to share prayer for themselves and their families. A driver from Quebec has asked to be baptized. Pray that God would be glorified and His kingdom expanded as a result of this ministry's endeavor. Our annual fundraising banquet is October 21st."

Quiet Time Thoughts

2Ch 7:14 if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

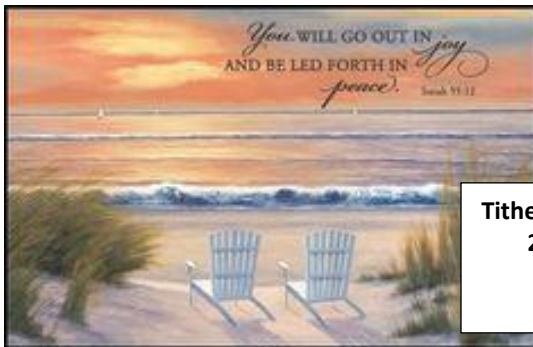

The struggle between prideful self-sufficiency and trust in a kind and generous God started with Adam and Eve and continues today. The ministry of Jesus was an open invitation to a restored connection with God. God provided the perfection of Christ so that everyone could be welcomed in. If you haven't yet, call out to Him today and trust Him with your life and challenges.
